UNITED STATES CENTS.

The growing demand for fine U. S. Cents, and the inability of dealers to supply the wants of their customers, have decided a gentleman, one of our progressive collectors, to offer the following set, complete as to dates, and comprising many desirable specimens. It may in fact be asserted, that this is one of the best sets of Cents offered for some time, and that it is problematical if another lot, as fine as this, will or can be offered during the season of 1886–1887.

422 1793 Chain. A fine, bold impression, remarkably well preserved; the hair is rubbed from the ear to the neck, but very fine in every other spot; rev. extra fine and sharp. Struck on large planchet of full thickness, and weighs 211½ grs. or 8 gr. more than the next described. Very rare and desirable. Monograph No. 3.

423 1793 Chain. From same dies as last. Very good and rare.

424 1793 Chain. With dot after LIBERTY and date. The impressions from this obv. die are never strong, but a rare variety and seldom found better than this specimen. Very good. Monog. 2.

425 1793 Wreath, lettered edge. Prominent parts of the hair rubbed, not worn. A fine specimen, very evenly struck, the beaded border perfect. Uncirculated, very rare. Monog. 9.

426 1793 Wreath; vine and bars on edge. Very good or fine; scarce. Monog. 7.

427 1794 Scarred head. V. fine and rare. Mon. 8, Maris 12.

428 1794 Amiable face. A sharp, perfect impression of fine olive color. Quite uncirculated, and one of the best cents of this date I have seen. Mon. 16–1, Maris 26.

429 1795 Thick planchet, lettered edge, with ONE CENT in centre on rev. Well centered; hair rubbed, still fine; rare.

430 1796 Fillet head. Very good; scarce.

431 1797 Separated date. Very good; small nicks in field.

432 1798 Very fine impression, of fine color, barely cir.

433 1799 Poor; date visible. Rare, guaranteed.

434 1800 First 0 over 9. Obv. fine; rev. v. good. Rare.

435 1801 Very fine; olive color.

436 1802 Very good or fine; light brown.

437 1803 Small nicks in field, but very fine; olive color.

438 1804 Perfect die. In every respect a strictly fine cent. Extremely rare and desirable.

439 1805 Very fine, and in this condition very rare.

440 1806 Fine. It is well known that in any but the most ordinary condition this is one of the rarest dates of the series. This specimen shows some marks of circulation, prominent parts of the hair being slightly worn and the field not perfectly smooth, but it is the best offered for a long time and ought to sell for at least $10.

441 1807 over '06. Brown color; very fine and rare.

442 1807 Perfect date. Fine; pin scratches across head.

443 1808 Fine, lower l. star strong. Very scarce.

498 Halifax Steamboat Company. Steamer l. Rev. FERRY TOKEN. Uncirculated; rare.

In demolishing the old Ferry House last fall, a number of these tokens, nearly all in uncirculated condition, were found under the planks and behind the cashier's desk. Excepting a few, bought by local collectors, the entire find was placed in my hands for sale. At the present time eight only are left, of which seven are uncirculated, one good.

499 1815 U. S. Half dollar. Good; scarce.
500 COIN CABINET. Black walnut frame; 20 drawers, in black walnut and maple, brass handles, folding doors, lock and key; 16½ in. high, 12 in. deep, 19½ in. wide. In perfect order.
